Full text of the adoption follows:

SUBCHAPTER 1. LICENSURE TO PRACTICE DENTISTRY

13:30-1.2 Application for licensure to practice dentistry

(a) (No change.)

(b) To qualify as a candidate for dental licensure, an applicant shall submit a completed application to the Board, which shall contain the following information and materials:

1.-3. (No change.)

4. Results of the successful completion of either of the following:

[page=1809] i. Parts I and II of the National Board Dental Examination; or

ii. The Integrated National Board Dental Examination;

5.-9. (No change.)

(c) (No change.)

(d) A candidate for dental licensure who has successfully completed the ADEX dental examination and who has not practiced as a licensed dentist for a period of five years or more prior to the date of application shall re-take the ADEX examination or a Board-approved refresher course with a post-course examination. The Board shall use the results of the clinical or post-course examination to assess competency and practice proficiencies. If the examination identifies deficiencies or educational needs, the Board may require the applicant, as a condition of licensure, to take and successfully complete any education or training or to submit to any supervision, monitoring, or limitations as the Board determines is necessary to ensure that the applicant practices with reasonable skill and safety. A candidate for dental licensure shall submit a completed application to the Board, which shall contain the following information and materials:

1.-2. (No change.)

3. Results of the successful completion of either of the following:

i. Parts I and II of the National Board Dental Examination; or

ii. The Integrated National Board Dental Examination;

4.-8. (No change.)

(e) A candidate for dental licensure by credentials, who is licensed to practice dentistry in another state or jurisdiction, shall submit a completed application to the Board, which shall contain the following information and materials:

1.-3. (No change.)

4. Results of the successful completion of either of the following:

i. Parts I and II of the National Board Dental Examination; or

ii. The Integrated National Board Dental Examination;

5.-10. (No change.)

(f)-(g) (No change.)
