Notice for Solicitation of Informal Public Input

"Urgent Care" Veterinary Facilities

Take notice that the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners (Board) is accepting written input from interested persons who wish to present their views regarding veterinary facilities using the term "urgent care" in their name or description. The Board is interested in gathering information on the range of services provided by "urgent care" veterinary facilities and in how "urgent care" should be defined in the context of veterinary care. Interested persons are encouraged to offer their views on the following:

1. What services do you expect to find at a veterinary facility using the term "urgent care" in its name or description?
2. How would you define "urgent care" in the context of veterinary care?
3. What criteria, if any, should a veterinary facility be required to meet to use the term "urgent care" in its name or description?
4. Is a veterinary facility that uses the term "urgent care" in its name or description different than a facility that uses the term "emergency care" in its name or description? If so, how does it differ?

5. In the context of veterinary care, are there terms that are substantially similar to "urgent care"?

The Board is accepting comments through email to VeterinaryMed@dca.njoag.gov or regular mail to State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners, PO Box 45020, Newark, New Jersey 07101. Please submit comments by August 2, 2024.
