COMMUNICATIONS

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4330

7. Board to review Assembly Bill No. 4330 permits the installation of automatic standby generators in certain residences without making an application to the local planning or zoning board for a variance. This bill would streamline the process by which an owner or occupant of a single or two-family residential property may install an automatic standby generator. The installation of such generators is beneficial to both residents and communities.

RULE PROPOSAL

8. Board to review drafted rule proposal granting temporary licensure for nonresident military spouses.
